

Incident

Would the student like to speak with someone?

Yes

No

PLEASE NOTE: None of these items are mutually exclusive. The student can speak with anyone at any time. Reporting is always an option. Reporting to one individual is not mutually exclusive from reporting to another individual. Choosing one route does not preclude or exclude other options. The student can speak with multiple groups at the same time and pursue multiple actions at the same time.

Would the student like to make an anonymous report?

Yes

No

ANONYMOUS REPORT of SEXUAL ASSAULT
Click here to download a PDF version of the anonymous reporting form. Paper forms are also available from Community Safety and the Health & Counseling Center.

SUPPORT INFORMATION
Click here for helpful resources and contact information for various support groups

Would the student like to speak with someone internal to Reed or external to Reed?

External

Internal

Would the student like to speak with someone confidentially?

Would the student like to speak with someone confidentially, or someone with a duty to report?

Confidential

Duty to Act

Confidential

Portland Police Bureau

PWCL
Hospital
Mental Health Professional
Legal Counsel

Dean of Students
Community Safety
Residence Life
Other Staff / Faculty / HAs
J-Board / Honor Council

Health & Counseling Center

Reference to chart of assistance detailing who can assist and in what ways they can assist. (Also includes quick reference for "duty-to-report" individuals)

Would the student like to speak with someone else?

Yes

No

